

CHRISTMAS SEAL BOOTHS TO END DRIVE SATURDAY

Fund Reaches $8,000 Mark,
But Yet $2,000 Under
Amount Necessary.

Total sales of Christmas seals for the benefit of the St. Joseph county chapter of the Anti-Tuberculosis League are $4,948. Mrs. Thomas A. Olney reported Thursday. This together with the $2,889 received from the Federation for social service, has netted the local chapter $7,837, more than $2,000 under the desired $10,000 quota, when the expense of the stamps is added.

This report is satisfactory to the officials conducting the drive, and would be doubly so if the letters sent out with seals enclosed had been returned with remittances. The belief is expressed that much of the shortage in the quota would be overcome if a complete record of the mail campaign were available.

Many Letters Out.

One of the outstanding features of this year's campaign has been the response from the county. In previous years the city has borne the greater share of the burden and expense, but the subscriptions by mail from the county have netted $577.44 to date. The remittances have been from a much larger number of people and covered a far greater area than heretofore. One-third of the total number of people living in the county to whom seals were sent have not as yet returned their remittance.

The chapter will close its booths at the end of this week, and but two more days are available for shoppers to obtain the Christmas stamps from these sources. The booths are being closed earlier than before, due, Mrs. Olney said, to the extreme hardship placed upon workers in the busy rush days preceding Christmas.

Report For Wednesday.

The sales from the booths Wednesday totaled $51.98. The report of the individual booths follows: Blackstone theater, Miss Helen Burke, Miss Fanny Burke, Miss Ruth Hershenson, Miss Florence Sallinger, Miss Hortense Civalaky, $32.15.

Grpheim theater, Mrs. J. E. Neff, Mrs. Ingersoll, $14.91.

Charles B. Sax, Mrs. H. E. Marshall, Miss Vernice Elbel, Mrs. Masters, Mrs. Henry Harper, Miss Mae Applegate, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, $10.

Robertson, Mrs. Fred Wiedman, Miss Elene Everett, Miss Dorothy Shafer, Miss Katherine Bingham, Miss Jeanette Eidenour, $8.

Philadelphia, Mrs. Malenberg, Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Bloomfield, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. George Schmidt, Mrs. Barkley, Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Haynes, $4.

Brandon Durrell, Mrs. A. E. Moner, Mrs. Burren, Mrs. Stanberry, $2.65.

Oliver Hotel, Mrs. Dill, Mrs. Cunningham, $2.

CROWDS WILL WATCH
LANDRU GO TO DEATH

PARIS, Dec. 15. — Tremendous crowds will be on hand to see Henri Landru, Bluebeard of Chambais, beheaded by the guillotine for the murder of 10 women. While the white-hot interest in the fate of this man, who won the hearts of more than 250 women merely to gain possession of their small fortunes, has subsided following his conviction, Parisians will want to know this cavalier will meet his end.

Landru may have mass said for him if he so desires, and he can have what he wishes to eat and drink, within reason. Then he will be shaved, not on the face, but on the back of the neck and skull, for it is argued that the interposition of even one hair may retard the action of the fatal blade.

Next he will be marched to the guillotine strapped to a long, stout plank, face downward, and the plank tipped forward until his head is placed in the half moon hollowed out in the cross-piece through which the knife works. When everything is ready the "Monsieur de Paris," as the official executioner is known, will press the button which will release the blade, weighted with 120 pounds of lead. It will fall a distance of 10 feet through its fixed grooves, across the murderer's neck. The head will drop into a wicker basket, out of sight. Attendants will gather up the body and then workmen will come forward and scrub away the blood.

Attempted Suicide in Jail After Prosecutor Delayed Hearing, Said

Charles Toth and Harry Brown, who are charged with attempting to break in and commit felony, were placed on trial in superior court No. 3 Thursday morning. The two men had several counts against them and efforts were being made to quash all charges other than that named.

Toth and Brown have been in jail for many months awaiting trial.

Brown, it was said, tried to commit suicide while in the county jail. The motive ascribed by evil mates was that he had become discouraged at his inability to secure a hearing. Toth is one of the prisoners who charged that Pros. Floyd G. Jellison threatened him with a year's stay in jail before giving a hearing because of the accused's refusal to plead guilty.

Liquor Law Violators to Be
Deputy Declares.

Warning was issued in city court Thursday morning by Dep. Pros. Frank Coughlin to more than 35 alleged bootleggers, who are facing charges of unlawful manufacture, possession and sale of intoxicating liquor, that the state will show no leniency in continuing their cases until after the holidays.

The notice to the bootleggers was issued by Pros. Coughlin after several attorneys are said to have approached him, seeking to have the cases of their clients held over for trial until after the holiday season. In making his announcement, Pros. Coughlin declared that the dispensers of intoxicating drinks did not hesitate to break the law of the state and the United States and declared that as far as the state of Indiana was concerned the cases of these men will be tried before the first of the year.

Must "Swear Proof."

Besides signifying his intentions of refusing to allow cases to be held over until after New Year's day, the prosecutor declared that the attorneys representing these men must present to the court bona fide reasons if they expect to obtain his consent for continuing the cases against their clients.

Two men, Stanley Walczak, 2024 W. Ford st., and Frank Burzlewicz, 1429 Grace st., arrested by Detectives Brumfield and detail Wednesday afternoon on charges of unlawful possession and receiving liquor from a common carrier, were arraigned in city court Thursday morning and through their lawyers pleaded not guilty and had their cases set for December 19 and December 23, respectively.

Edward Lynch, operator of a soft drink establishment at Sample and Main sts., whose place was raided by the officers Wednesday afternoon and a small quantity of "mule" obtained, was not placed under arrest due to sickness. Chief of Police Kline announced Thursday morning that Lynch would be placed under
